

The annual SDN workshop is on again and there's no shortage of current interest topics. A Voice to Parliament, energy supply challenges, the war in Ukraine and emerging nuclear threat, data protection, homelessness and the housing crisis, climate change, ageing (want to live longer, younger?), or your latest book. Be part of the effective small group experience that SDN offers!

The Social Developers' Network WORKSHOP

Bring your story, your ideas and concerns, from the personal to the political, the local to the global, and become part of this workshop's dynamic agenda. Feel empowered to be a more effective catalyst for social change. Conviviality and mutual support guaranteed.
